

NAME: _____ Student #: _____

Information to complete this worksheet is available from the Bureau of Justice Statistics, Family Violence Statistics – see class webpage for direct link.

From the section on Reported and Unreported Family Violence

1. Crimes by strangers make up what percent of the 32 million violent crimes reported in Table 2.1? _____
2. Females were _____% of the U.S. population age 12 and older between 1998 and 2002 but _____% of the Nation's victims of family violence. Females were about _____50% of all spouses and romantic partners but were _____% of spouse abuse victims and _____% of the victims of violence between boyfriends and girlfriends.
3. Males accounted for _____% of family violence offenders and _____% of nonfamily violence offenders. Among violent crimes against a spouse, _____% of the offenders were male; against a boyfriend or girlfriend, _____%; and against a stranger, _____% of the offenders were male.

From the section on Fatal Family Violence

4. Wives were about half of all spouses in the population in 2002 but _____% of all persons killed by their spouse.

From the section on Family Violence Reported to Police

5. Police learned of _____% of the 3.2 million cases of robbery and _____% of the 6.4 million cases of aggravated assault. Sexual assault (_____% ) was the _____ type of crime to be reported to police. Overall, between 1998 and 2002, fewer than _____ sex offenses – either rape or sexual assault – came to the attention of law enforcement.

6. The top reason for not reporting violence by a family member was: -
_____. Together, "not important enough" and "not important to police" totaled what percent of reasons for not reporting violence by a family member? _____

7. Among family violence reported to police, _____% resulted in an arrest.

From the section on State Prosecution of Family Assault

8. The data for this section is based on data from _____ large counties. To what extent do you think this can be used to understand prosecutions nationwide? Why?

From the section on Family Violence Offenders in Prison

9. Of the 458,148 men and women in State prisons nationwide for violent crime in 1997, _____% were there for a violent crime against a member of their family. The remaining _____% were men and women whose violent crime was against a nonfamily member.

10. Among inmates in prison for a violent crime against their offspring, _____% victimized their daughters.